The Poet's Corner

This weeks poem is by Monetta Nicolay

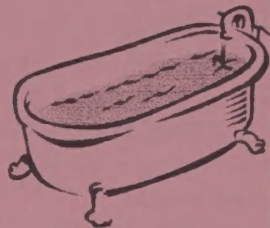

I watched
As the crystals
Did their slow motion dance
Into the old claw foot tub

I inhaled
The light musky smell
Of my desire for you
As my jeans fell around my feet

I heard
you calling my name
As my foot entered
The hot steamy water

I felt
The intense passion of your love
As the water surrounded
My naked body

I survived
The icy cold stab of loneliness
As I opened the bathroom door
And you were not there

A Touch Of Humor:

You Know You've Been On The Computer Too Long When...

1. your neighbors have started mowing your yard.
2. You've never laid eyes on your new best friend.
3. You phone everyone you know before you go online so you won't be interrupted.
4. You spend half the plane trip with your laptop on your lap...and your child in the overhead compartment.
5. You decide to stay in college for an additional year or two, just for the free internet access.
6. You refer to going to the bathroom as downloading.
7. All of your friends have an @ in their names.
8. Your cat has its own home page.
9. You finally do take that vacation, but only after buying a cellular modem and a laptop.
10. Your eyeglasses have a web site burned in on them.

PSU Creates "Anywhere, Anytime" Courses

In addition to the traditional, on-campus courses, Portland State University's School of Extended Studies offers college-level courses by correspondence. There are no admission or residency requirements. Enrolling is easy. Tuition per credit is $75. Start any time and take up to 18 months to complete a course. Students determine deadlines and exam dates. Access to instructors is by phone, email, mail, or fax.

The program, offered through Independent Study, creates opportunities for students who might not otherwise have access to higher education. Kathleen Scotland of Orlando, Florida, enjoys the ability to schedule courses around her busy schedule. She finds, "Taking courses at PSU offers freedom and flexibility. I can start reading the chapters, solve the problems, and place the answers online at a convenient time." Clara Chezem of Eugene, Oregon, agrees. "So many people put college on hold, but now they don't have to. This program allowed me to resume my studies and still take care of my children." Courses are available world-wide. Currently, people from 26 countries and all 50 states are taking Independent Study courses through Portland State University.

Who: PSU School of Extended Studies, Independent Study
What: College-level correspondence courses (Independent Study)
